

Media Contact: Mariangela Saavedra allenslanetheaterpa@gmail.com

www.allenslane.org
773-633-6402

For Immediate Release
September 2020
Images available upon request

Allens Lane Theater presents
EURYDICE* by Sarah Ruhl
Directed by Shannon Hill
Part of the 2020 Philadelphia Fringe Festival

Philadelphia, PA- Inspired by the Greek myth of Orpheus and Eurydice, Sarah Ruhl reimagines this magical tale of love and loss with a modern day twist in Eurydice. Orpheus and Eurydice meet and fall in love. On their wedding day, Eurydice dies in a tragic accident. Orpheus travels to the Underworld to rescue her, but is given an ultimatum that twists their fate. Along the way, we meet the Lord of the Underworld, the "Stones", and Eurydice's father. This poignant tale about the enduring beauty of life and the cost of love will make you laugh and break your heart.

Presented as part of the 2020 Philadelphia Fringe Festival. Performances will be available to stream online starting September 21st.

Tickets ON SALE at <https://fringearts.com/2020-fringe-festival/>

About Allens Lane Theater:

For over 63 years, Allens Lane Theater has produced purposeful, challenging, and unique theater experiences centered around contemporary human issues which reflect the diversity and complexity of our community. Our lineup presents the best in contemporary theater in an unique cabaret atmosphere and streamed performances online.

Fact Sheet for EURYDICE by Sarah Ruhl

Performance Schedule:

September 21st - October 4 online

Showtimes:

Performances will be available to stream online starting September 21st.

Runtime: 90 Min

At Allens Lane Theater
601 W Allens Lane
Philadelphia PA 19119

Ticket Information:

<https://allenslane.org/theater/current-theater-season-schedule/>

$15 all ages, streaming ticket

Credits:

Directed by Shannon Hill

Starring:

Taylor Morgan
Jed Krivisky
Sarah Heddins
Becky Fleckner
William Daniels
Hanlon Smith-Dorsey
Miguel Vela

Calendar Listing:

EURYDICE by Sarah Ruhl Inspired by the Greek myth of Orpheus and Eurydice, Sarah Ruhl reimagines this magical tale of love and loss with a modern day twist in Eurydice. Orpheus and Eurydice meet and fall in love. On their wedding day, Eurydice dies in a tragic accident. Orpheus travels to the Underworld to rescue her, but is given an ultimatum that twists their fate. Along the way, we meet the Lord of the Underworld, the "Stones", and Eurydice's father. This poignant tale about the enduring beauty of life and the cost of love will make you laugh and break your heart. Presented as part of the 2020 Philadelphia Fringe Festival. Performances will be available to stream online starting September 21st.

To request photos, interviews, press tickets or more information please contact:

Mariangela Saavedra mariangela.saavedra@gmail.com 773-633-6402